

Blubber Dump Closure

St. Paul Island

NOAA PPO
Field Season 2003

Overview

- Site closure conducted between October 9 and November 1, 2003 by BSE, Tetra Tech, and Kelly Ryan
- Total of 7,280 CY of PCS transported from the Blubber Dump to the PCS stockpile in Tract 42
- Liner removed from the stockpile and shipped for disposal. Steel plates removed from the ETC cell area and recycled on Island
- 78 Samples taken for DRO, RRO, GRO, and BTEX
- Two samples exceeded cleanup level, area will be revisited and remaining PCS excavated.

Blubber Dump location

Blubber Dump site map

ETC operations

ETC operations

ETC closure: PCS removal

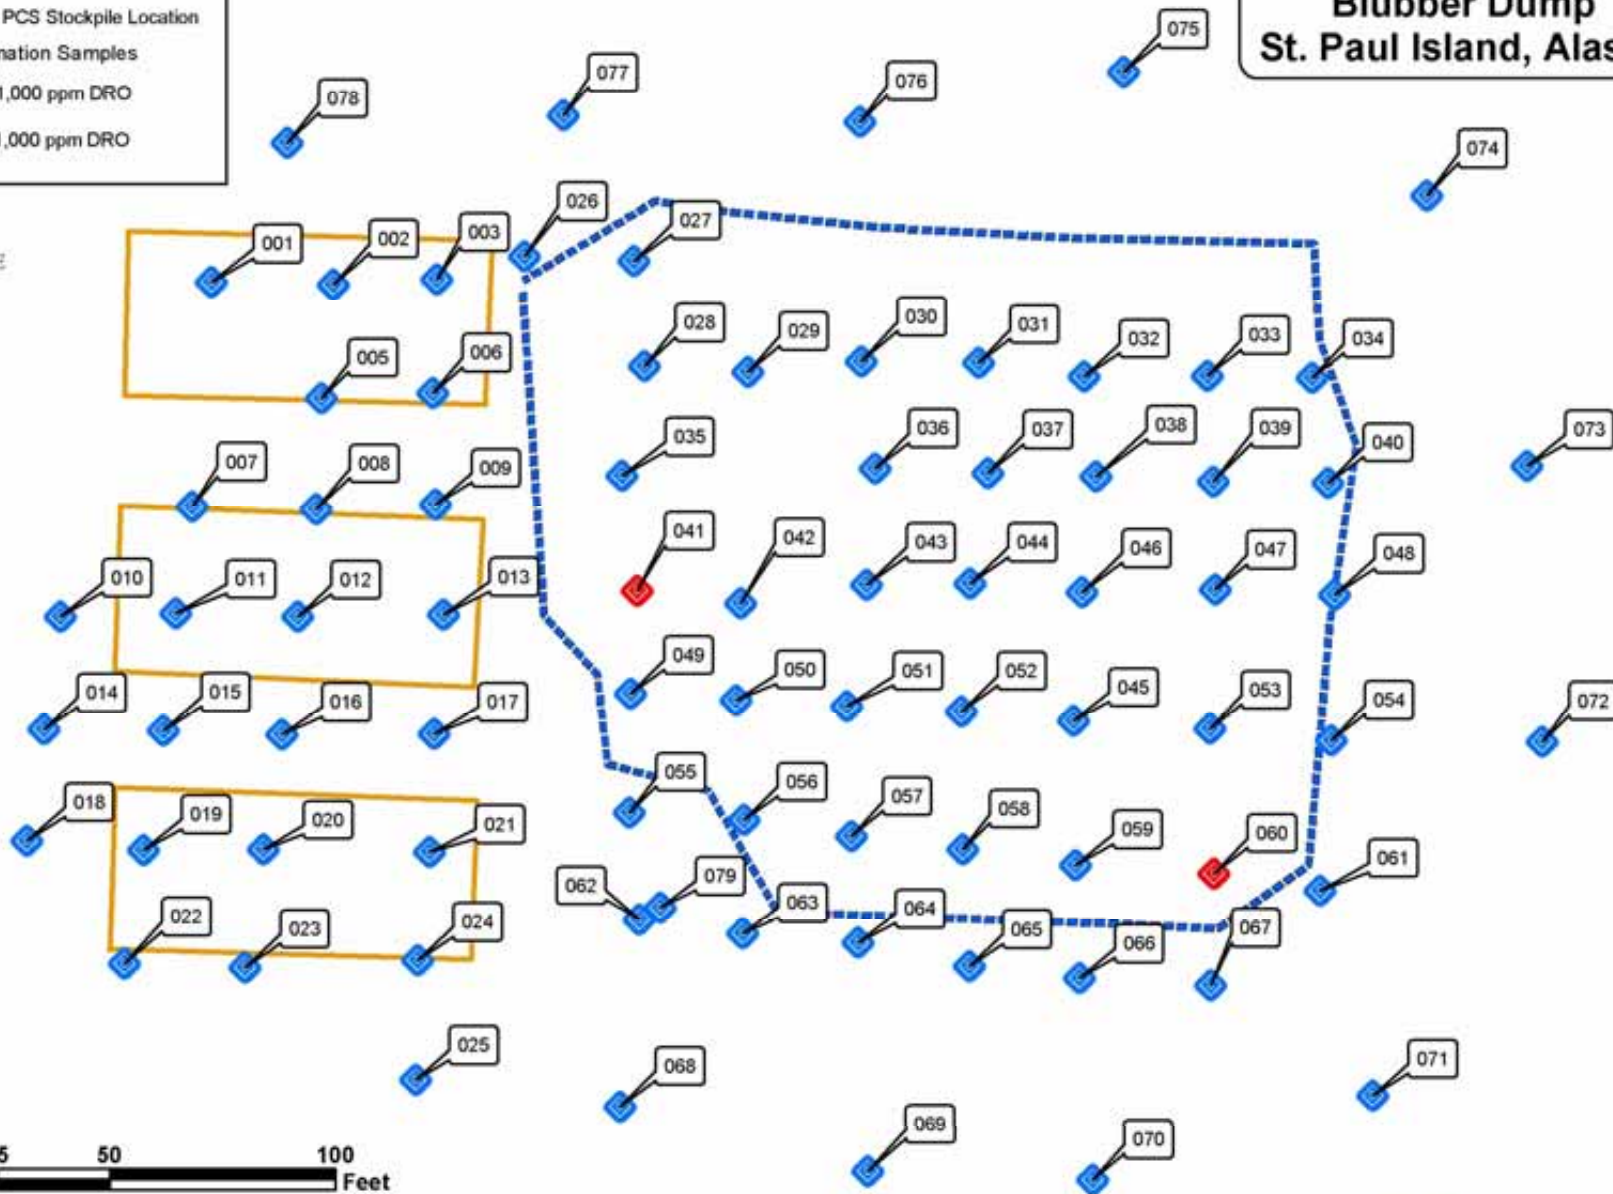

Site after PCS removal, looking northwest

Legend

- Former ETC Cell Locations
- Former PCS Stockpile Location
- NOAA Confirmation Samples
 - Above 1,000 ppm DRO
 - Below 1,000 ppm DRO

Sampling Location Map Blubber Dump St. Paul Island, Alaska

Note: All sample labels are shortened for clarity.
Confirmation samples are named SP47-CS-###-005.